In the Harbour. Yellow-sailed and brown-sailed fishing boats crowd the Boulogne waters, and the picturesque quays and houses of the port stand huddled behind. Boulogne is the French Port, fifth in importance for imports and exports, and for passenger transit between England and the Continent she stands easily first. The distance between London and Paris, via Boulogne is only 254 miles.

Dear Anna.

You don't be shocked at a postal from me. I am just writing to find out when it will be convenient for you to have me call. Sophie would probably come too. She was here Wednesday. Any day but Wed. Aug 5th or Friday 7th will suit me. Let me know if you want Sophie here. With love Bertha.
